

China Guardian (HK) Presents
Magnificent Jewellery Selling Exhibition “BLOSSOM”
Showcasing Nearly 100 Pieces of Antique and Branded Jewelleries

22 - 28 April

China Guardian (HK) G Art Gallery

Hong Kong, 21 April 2022 - This year marks China Guardian Hong Kong’s 10th Anniversary. We are honoured to celebrate our landmark moments and achievements since 2012, as we have presented nearly 150 sales, realised a total of HK$ 8 billion / US$ 1.02 billion, and achieved various World Auction Records which were made possible only by the generosity and continued support of collectors worldwide. Opening the celebrative year is a series of selling exhibitions and auctions, including Magnificent Jewellery Selling Exhibition "BLOSSOM" on 22-28 April, and “China Guardian Hong Kong May Auction” offering ceramics and works of art during 24-31 May, which are sure to lend a splash of colour to an otherwise slack season for clients and enthusiasts alike.

Magnificent Jewellery Selling Exhibition “BLOSSOM” brings together nearly 100 pieces of antique and branded jewellery at China Guardian (HK) G Art Gallery in Admiralty, Hong Kong, from 22 through 28 April. Each piece is handpicked for its enduring craftsmanship and style, offering the perfect opportunity to celebrate colours and the enchanting spirit of spring.

Lot 17

Moonstone and Gem-Set 'Parrot' Brooch, Cartier

Price: HK$ 91,000

Animals and plants have been the constant source of inspiration for Cartier. This beautifully handcrafted 'Parrot' brooch displays a feathery splendor with moonstone and 18K gold as the body, rubies as the eyes, and emeralds as the green leaves. This 'Parrot' brooch is a symbol of sophistication and is sure to bring a touch of glamour to every occasion.

Lot 19

Diamond Double-Clip Brooch, Art Deco

Price: HK$ 115,000

After the First World War, fashion had taken on a whole new look as the gender-based identification of women has decreased. New trends of design concepts and decorative arts were developed, including the Art Deco Movement. As a sparkling example of the Art Deco period, this brooch echoes the streamlined beauty of this iconic era, by its clean lines, symmetrical forms, sharp geometry and a mesmerising full-diamond design.
